PIRATES CHARITIES

Throughout its 121-year history, the Pittsburgh Pirates have developed deep-rooted relationships throughout the Pittsburgh region. The Pirates have supported many non-profit and civic organizations through its considerable charitable and community efforts, specifically its charitable giving, memorabilia, merchandise and ticket donations, and volunteer efforts.

Under the direction of Chairman of the Board Bob Nutting, the Pittsburgh Pirates organization's mission is to strive for excellence in every aspect of the organization, including the way the organization interacts with the community, its business partners and its fans.

Although the organization does a lot of great things in the community, the management team decided it could be more effective in its philanthropic efforts and make an even greater impact in meeting the needs of the region. As a result, the Pirates formed a newly defined philanthropic arm, Pirates Charities, prior to the 2007 baseball season.

Pirates Charities was established as a 501(c) 3 organization and focuses on three core areas of youth health, fitness and education. Based on these core areas, the objective of Pirates Charities is outlined in the charitable foundation's mission statement:

Pirates Charities is committed to strengthening the community by supporting organizations and programs aimed at improving the lives of children and adults in the greater Pittsburgh region. Pirates Charities places a special emphasis on supporting youth programs focused on health, fitness, and education by developing partnerships with those who share in our mission.

By focusing its charitable contributions of both time and funds in this manner, Pirates Charities will enable the Pirates to support programs that align with its mission and allow the organization to continue its already established community relations activities. As a result, Pirates Charities has increased the impact of the Pirates charitable support throughout the Pittsburgh region.

Pirates Community Baseball Center

In its first full year of operation, Pirates Charities partnered with the Boys & Girls Club of Western Pennsylvania to renovate a dilapidated indoor swimming pool located in the Shadyside/East Liberty Boys & Girls Club into a state-of-the-art, year round baseball and softball training complex.

The complex, named the Pirates Community Baseball Center, features two batting cages with automatic pitching machines, skill stations, multi-media training rooms, coaches' offices, equipment storage rooms and more.

The indoor training complex serves as the home to Pittsburgh's Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) youth outreach program and the Boys & Girls Club of Western Pennsylvania baseball and softball programs. The facility also serves as a training complex for the CitiParks Big League programs.

Officially opened on February 8, 2007, the goal of the complex is to encourage area youth to re-engage in the game by giving them a safe place to practice their baseball and softball skills year round.

Before Pirates Charities

After Pirates Charities

Pirates Charities fundraisers were held throughout 2007. In a variety of ways, Pirates fans, employees and corporate partners contributed their dollars, time and energy to ensure the success of every event.

* The second annual Pirates Charities Golf Classic was held on July 19, 2007 at the Fox Chapel Golf Club. Current players, alums, broadcasters and members of the executive staff participated. Over $100,000 was raised for Pirates Charities.

* "Bowling with the Bucs", led by Jack and Julie Wilson, teamed up Pirates players and broadcasters with Pirates fans for a fun night of bowling benefitting Pirates Charities.

* Pirates' play-by-play announcer Greg Brown and Pirates corporate partner Dick's Sporting Goods put together a great event called "Gloves for Kids". Fans visited the Dick's store at Robinson Mall to get autographs and have photos taken with their favorite players.

* The Pirates' Wives hosted two "Mystery Grab Bag" sales in 2007. Fans purchased "mystery" individually autographed baseballs to benefit Pirates Charities. Current and former Pirates stars as well as baseball's top players contributed autographs to the event.

Throughout the year, Pirates players, coaches, broadcasters, alumni and front office staff members partner with countless non-profit and civic groups throughout the region to help make our community a better place to live. Here's a look at some of the community projects the Pirates were involved with during the 2007 season.

- Throughout the 2007 season, Jason Bay and U.S. Steel teamed up to support the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Pittsburgh. For every hit Jason recorded, U.S. Steel made a donation to the Ronald McDonald House, resulting in over $22,500 in 2007 donations. Over the past three seasons, Jason and U.S. Steel have teamed up to raise more than $86,500 for the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Pittsburgh.
- More than 50,000 children have attended Pirates games through Tickets for Kids at PNC Park since it opened in 2001 thanks to the generosity of the Pirates and their season ticket holders.
- Tom Gorzelanny co-chaired the Epilepsy Family Fun Run at PNC Park, an event that raised over $100,000 for the Epilepsy Foundation.
- The Pirates teamed up with the Central Blood Bank for two blood drives in 2007. A total of 203 units of blood were collected, touching more than 600 lives.
- The Pirates' Wives raised over $10,000 for the West Penn Burn Camp during their two-part Mystery Grab Bag Event in which they sold autographed baseballs to fans.
- The Freddy Sanchez Players 4 Kidz Dinner and Auction benefiting the Challenged Athletes Foundation at the Heinz History Center raised over $65,000.
- The Pirates hosted a Make-A-Wish Holiday Party inside the Pirates clubhouse at PNC Park. Twenty-five Make-A-Wish children and their families were invited to the party where each child was able to meet players Tom Gorzelanny and Zach Duke as well as Chairman of the Board Bob Nutting. Each child received their own personalized locker, complete with a Pirates jersey and a backpack filled with assorted goodies.
- The Pirates partnered with Del Monte to serve a hot breakfast to the homeless every morning throughout the week of December 10-14. Volunteers from the Pirates, Del Monte and the Light of Life Rescue Mission teamed up to cook, plate and serve the meals to more than 80 people per day.

YOUTH EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Education Days

With the help of Kittanning Middle School and Great American Opportunities, the Pirates in 2007 developed an educational lesson plan that revolved around Pirates baseball and encompassed subjects such as history, math and geography for sixth, seventh and eighth grade students. Students came to the ballpark for a day game and participated in a pregame "treasure hunt" where they searched for answers to questions in a specially designed workbook. The Pirates "Education Days" program is certified by the Pennsylvania Department of Education. Over 7,000 students participated during the 2007 season.

A+ Program

The Pirates are proud of the A+ Program, which recognizes scholastic excellence and perseverance among our younger fans. If a student achieves a 3.5 grade point average or maintains perfect attendance for one full grading period, he or she is awarded with a pair of tickets to a Pirates game. The A+ Program, which is sponsored by TRIB Total Media and the U.S. Army, rewarded over 7,500 tickets valued at more than $35,000 in 2007.

Mystery Grab Bag

The Mystery Grab Bag event, which is an autographed baseball sale that benefits Pirates Charities and the West Penn Camp for Burned Children, raised $10,000 in 2007.

Homeless Children's Initiative

The Pirates Wives donated their time to attend the Magical Math Camp reading to children and assisting in educational games. The Math Camp is part of Allegheny Intermediate Unit's Homeless Children's Initiative.

There really is no "off-season" in baseball - especially for community activities. Players and front office personnel are active throughout the year reaching out to loyal Pirates fans throughout the Pittsburgh and Bradenton regions. From Caravan stops to PirateFest to visits to schools and hospitals, the Pirates are active in the community on a year-round basis.

Pirates Caravan & PirateFest

For over 20 years, the Pirates have made a point of traveling to the outlying regions in the greater Pittsburgh area during the months of January and February during the club's annual caravan. This year, a total of nine players, along with manager John Russell, pitching coach Jeff Andrews and the Pirates broadcasters, made a total of 20 stops in 12 days encompassing three states (Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia) during the two-week event.

The unofficial start to baseball season in Pittsburgh begins with PirateFest, the club's winter carnival which takes place just a few weeks before the team heads to spring training. The three-day weekend event, in its 18th year, attracted over 14,000 fans to the David L. Lawrence Convention Center in 2008. Free player autographs, clinics, memorabilia, Q&A sessions with management and players, along with games and prizes make it a fun event for every baseball fan.

The Pirates will celebrate their 40th anniversary of spring training in Bradenton, FL, in 2008. Throughout that long history, the Pirates have contributed in many ways to the Bradenton community.

Benefit Games

On three select dates during spring training, the Pirates donate 50% of ticket sales proceeds to three Bradenton area non-profit organizations.

Opening Day Book Drive

Over 250 new or lightly used children's books were donated by fans last season during a one-day book drive to benefit Wakeland Elementary School. The books were given to the school as part of Read Across America Day.

Champs Sports PirateFest

This street festival takes place on an annual basis outside McKechnie Field before the game. Activities for the entire family, including free autographs from Pirates players, are available during this mini-version of the annual Pittsburgh off-season event.

Hospital and Boys & Girls Club Visits

The Pirates look to touch the lives of youngsters in their spring training home, as often as they do in Pittsburgh. Each spring, Bucco players visit children in area hospitals as well as the kids at the Boys & Girls Club of Bradenton.

Russell spent the last two seasons as the Triple-A manager in the Philadelphia organization. He was named the International League Manager-of-the-Year after guiding Scranton/Wilkes-Barre to the Northern Division title in 2006. John served as a manager at the 2007 International League All-Star Game while managing Ottawa.

John began his career as a manager in the Minnesota organization, where his teams posted five winning seasons in his eight years. Gary Varsho returned to the Pittsburgh organization when he was named Bench Coach on November 20, 2007.

Varsho, who played for the Pirates in 1991-92 and again in 1994, spent the 2007 season as Cleveland's minor league Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator. He spent the previous five years (2002-06) as the Phillies Bench Coach, which was his first Major League coaching assignment. Gary served as Philadelphia's interim manager for the final two games of the 2004 season following Larry Bowa's dismissal (he posted a 1-1 record in the two games).

He spent one more season with Wisconsin before joining Reading, where he was named the Eastern League's Manager-of-the-Year in 2000. Gary was also a coach for the USA Team during the 2000 All-Star Futures Game in Atlanta. At the conclusion of both the 2000 and 2001 campaigns, Baseball America recognized Varsho as the "Best Managing Prospect" in the E.L.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing career, Varsho played 14 years of professional baseball, including eight seasons in the majors leagues with the Cubs (1998-90), Pirates, Reds (1993) and Phillies (1995). INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

In the seven-year history of PNC Park, there has been just one inside-the-park home run - Jack Wilson on July 2, 2004 vs. Milwaukee (game one). Turner Ward's against the Braves on July 2, 1998 was just the fourth pinch-hit, inside-the-park-homer in franchise history and the first since Adam Comorosky did so against the Phillies on July 16, 1931. With his home run on July 1, 1916, Honus Wagner remains the oldest player ever to hit an inside-the-park home run at the ripe old age of 42 years and four months.

HISTORY

Now in their 122nd National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The As and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park – which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium – their home. Described as the “Hialeah of Ballparks” when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league’s second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920’s – with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey – Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter “Big Train” Johnson in Game Seven.

career batting average. Lloyd – who was tagged “Little Poison” – hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York’s famed “Murderer’s Row” with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball’s premier hitters during the 1930’s with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era’s best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) – which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he refired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed “Big Poison” – batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league’s Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333

GENERAL

HISTORY

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke its six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 4-1. While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12, 1997. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the tenth inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

HISTORY

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank sixth in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay has been a fixture in left field since being acquired in a trade with San Diego in 2003.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting has built a fundamentally different organization by introducing Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new General Manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team has made significant changes to each of the three major areas - Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

- 1900: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.
- 1910: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel. The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button. Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.
- 1920: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey.
- 1930: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.
- 1937: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.
- 1939: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.
- 1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.
- 1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P".
- 1953: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates".
- 1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.
- 1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.
- 1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.
- 1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.
- 1977- Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black
- 1979: and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.
- 1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.
- 1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.
- 1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.
- 1991: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.
- 1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.
- 1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.
- 1997: The organization introduce a complete new look by introducing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.
- 2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).
- 2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.
- 2007: The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

"The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories. Number retired in 1952.

DANNY 40 MURTAUGH

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted righthanded. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to four Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager-of-the-Year in 1960 and 1970. Number retired in 1977.

JACKIE 42 ROBINSON

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

PITTSBURGH PIRATES

CHANGE

DEVELOPMENT

Director of Scouting*GREG SMITH

Greg Smith was named Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting on November 7, 2007.

Smith is a 16-year scouting veteran, having spent the previous 11 seasons with the Detroit organization, working the last three years as the club's special assignment scout.

Prior to 2005, Greg spent eight seasons (1997-2004) as Detroit's Director of Scouting where he oversaw the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting. He also simultaneously served as the Club's Director of Player Development from 2000-2002. Before joining the Tigers organization, Smith spent seven years (1990-96) as an area scout with the San Diego Padres, covering areas from Florida to Maryland.

Under Smith's guidance, the Tigers selected 2006 American League Rookie of the Year Justin Verlander with the second overall pick in the 2004 draft. Smith and his staff were rated by Baseball America as having the strongest draft of all 30 major league clubs in 2002, a year in which the club selected outfielder Curtis Granderson in the third round and right-handed pitcher Joel Zumaya in the 11th round. Additionally, Greg was directly responsible for the signing of Jair Jurrjens as a non-drafted free agent out of Curacao. During Smith's tenure as Director of Scouting, the Tigers signed and developed over 40 players who reached the Major League level.

Smith spent seven years (1990-1996) as an area scout with the San Diego Padres before joining the Detroit organization. An outfielder/first baseman during his playing days, he signed with the Padres as a free agent on 6/7/88 and played three seasons in the minor leagues with Spokane (1988), Charleston (1989) and Riverside (1990), a club managed by Bruce Bochy.

Greg was born on 2/2/66 in Chattanooga, TN. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology from Vanderbilt University in 1988. Smith resides in Pittsburgh with his wife Martha.

Assistant Scouting Director*JOE DELLI CARRI

Joe Delli Carri was named Pittsburgh's Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 2006. He joined the Pirates scouting staff on November 7, 2005, spending the 2006 season as the East Coast Supervisor.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Delli Carri spent 10 seasons in the New York Mets scouting department, working as a South Regional Supervisor (2001-2005) and an Area Supervisor (1996-2000).

Originally selected by the Mets in the 38th round of the 1989 June draft, Joe made his professional debut with St. Lucia that summer. He spent five seasons in the New York minor league system before being traded to Detroit on 2/17/94. An infielder during his playing days, Delli Carri retired following the players strike in 1995. He returned to the New York organization and served the Mets as their Double-A Hitting Coach at Binghamton during the '95 campaign before joining the scouting staff in 1996.

Joe was born on 1/16/67 in Bronx, NY, and graduated from Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, NJ. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology of Law from the University of Pennsylvania. Delli Carri and his wife Cindy have three daughters; Allison (7), Julia (5) and Paige (3).

Director of Latin American Scouting*RENE GAYO

Rene Gayo is in his fifth season as a member of the Pirates Scouting department. In his role, he coordinates and supervises the club's International Scouts in attempts to sign players on the global level - with a heavy emphasis in Latin America.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Gayo spent five years (1999-2003) as the Director of International Scouting/Latin American Crosschecker with the Cleveland Indians. His tenure with the Tribe began in October of 1993 as an area scout, a position he held for eight seasons (1994-2000) mainly in South Texas and Louisiana. When his role on the international level began to expand during his tenure with the Indians, Rene was responsible for signing Dany's Baez, Willy Taveras and Jhonny Peralta among others.

Gayo played one season of professional baseball in the Cincinnati Reds organization as a catcher before turning his attention to scouting and player development. He served the Pirates as a part time scout for four years (1989-1992) and the Texas Rangers in 1993 before joining the Indians.

Rene is of Cuban descent and was born on 9/21/62 in Miami, FL. He was raised in Chicago and currently resides in Alvin, TX, with his wife Leticia and son Manny (14). Gayo attended Gordon Technical High School in Chicago, IL, where he lettered in baseball, hockey and speech & debate before going on to earn an economics degree from St. Mary's University in San Antonio, TX. Rene also played baseball for two years at St. Mary's.

Director of Player Development

KYLE STARK

Kyle Stark was named Pittsburgh's Director of Player Development on November 7, 2007.

Prior to joining General Manager Neal Huntington's staff, Stark spent four years in Cleveland's Baseball Operations department, assisting in all areas of Scouting, Player Development and Major League Operations. In 2006 and 2007, Kyle performed the baseball related duties of the Assistant Farm Director, oversaw the club's efforts in Pacific Rim Scouting and coordinated the club's Advanced Scouting and provided supplemental Advance Scouting reports.

In addition to overseeing all aspects on the Player Development system, Stark will implement and supervise a written development plan system for each of our minor league players to ensure a consistent and structured approach to instruction throughout the organization.

Kyle was born on 7/9/78 in Bradford, PA. A 1999 graduate from Ball State University, Stark received a law degree from the University of Toledo in 2002 and a master's degree in Business Administration from St. Bonaventure in 2004. In his two years at St. Bonaventure, he also served as Pitching Coach for the baseball team. He resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Heather, and two sons; Chance (8) and Cooper (2).

Field Coordinator

JEFF BANISTER

Jeff Banister is in his sixth season as the Pirates Minor League Field Coordinator after spending the previous four years as the Field Coordinator at the Major League level. The '08 season marks Banister's 23rd with the organization.

Originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft, Jeff began his professional playing career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his major league debut and only big league appearance with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career major league batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry at Three Rivers Stadium in his only big league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery. He has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg in 1980.

Banister served as a player/coach with Carolina (AA) in 1993 before beginning his managerial career with Welland in the New York-Penn League in 1994. On January 22, 2008, the Pirates broke ground on a 46-acre training facility in El Toro, Dominican Republic. Owner Bob Nutting, President Frank Coonelly, General Manager Neal Huntington and various Pirates players, including Dominican natives Ronny Paulino and Jose Bautista, were on hand for the groundbreaking ceremony.

The facility, which is scheduled to be completed in the summer of 2009, will replace the inadequate and spread-out rented facility that the organization currently uses as its developmental headquarters in the Latin American country. When completed, the Pirates will be one of just seven Major League teams to own its own facilities in the Dominican Republic.

Their current facility – which consists of one playing field, a single dilapidated batting cage and no centralized dormitories or facilities – will be replaced by an all-inclusive campus-style complex. Highlights of the new facility will include:

On-site housing for up to 90 players and coaches, including 18 rooms to house players on the Pirates' Dominican Summer League team. Also located in this main building will be a dining hall, player lounges with stations to watch film, and educational classrooms, where players will take both Spanish reading and writing courses as well as English speaking courses.

Two and a half baseball fields – one of which will be used for the summer league games – as well as a bunting station. The dugouts, bleachers and observation stations will all be covered as a means of countering the frequent rain storms in the country. There will also be four covered batting cages and six bullpen mounds.

A clubhouse and baseball training building next to the dormitories. Located inside this building will be a weight room, training room and coaches locker room, among other things.

The Dominican Summer League Pirates posted the best record in the 34-team circuit. The DSL Buccos went 52-16 and finished in first place in the San Pedro de Macoris Division, 3.5 games in front of the DSL Angels. The DSL Pirates earned a first round bye before losing two-games-to-one in the second round to the DSL Yankees 1 squad.

The DSL Buccos ranked third in the league with a staff ERA of 2.63. Righthander Richard Acosta finished with a 9-1 record, four complete games, a 1.23 ERA and 97 strikeouts in 13 starts. Acosta's four complete games and 95.0 innings paced the circuit. In addition, he also ranked fifth in the league in ERA, tied for second in victories and finished fourth in strikeouts.

Acosta was joined by several teammates who put together impressive seasons on the mound. Eliecer Navarro finished second on the staff with eight victories while fanning 85 batters in 70.0 innings of work. Daniel Sanchez posted a 3-1 record and 1.53 ERA while leading the team with seven saves. Juan Rojas went 6-2 with a 1.81 ERA in 18 games (one start).

Offensively the DSL Pirates smashed a league-leading 41 home runs. The club also finished seventh in the league with a .257 team batting average.

Victor Estanislao finished with a team-best .336 batting average. Pedro Chavez knocked in a team-high 37 runs while also finishing with a team-best seven home runs. Switch hitter Edward Garcia led the team in runs scored and doubles while ranking second in RBI. Silvio Pena tallied a league-high 39 stolen bases.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

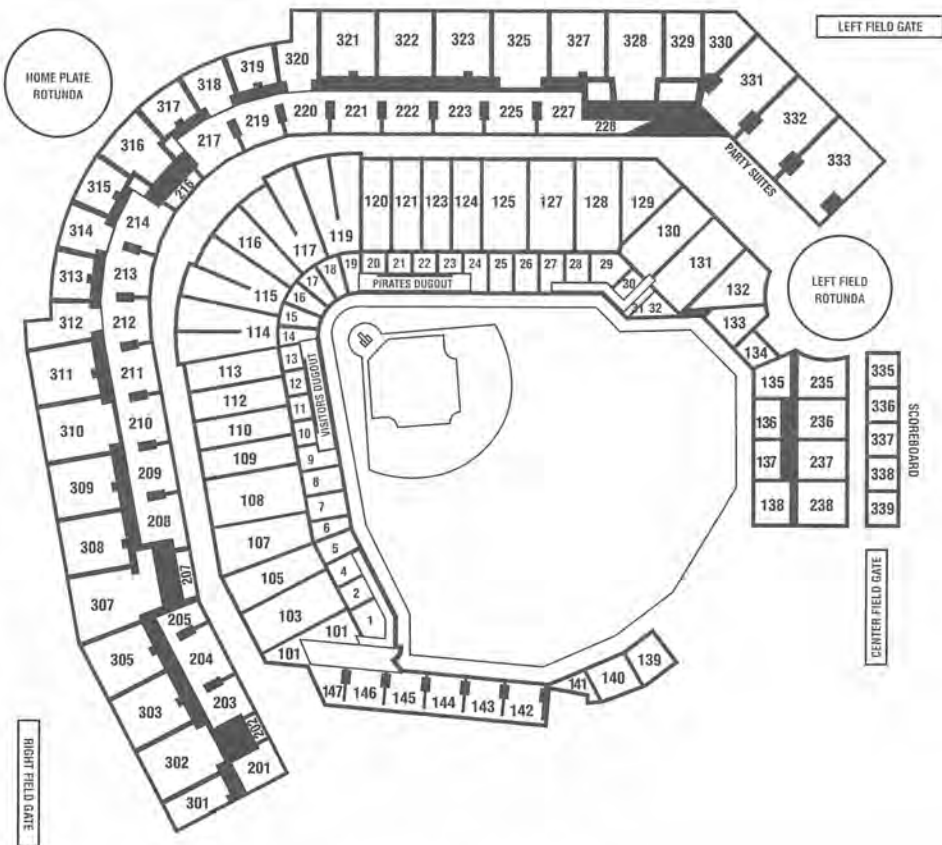

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.

PNC PARK STATUE INFORMATION

HONUS WAGNER

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico – where Roberto first played the game – Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates towards the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

RALPH KINER

The Pirates unveiled a sculpture of Hall-of-Fame outfielder Ralph Kiner at PNC Park on April 7, 2003, as part of the club's opening day festivities. It is located behind the bleacher seats in left field, along the main level of the ballpark.

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still ranks second on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and had his No. 4 jersey retired by the Pirates in 1987. Kiner holds many club records and is still one of only three National League players to ever hit eight home runs in one week.

The club announced it would immortalize the former slugger in March of 2003. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak still unmatched in either league. The hands and bat were sculpted by Susan Wagner, the lady who also designed the Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell statues.

Play-by-Play Announcer

LANNY FRATTARE

The 2008 season marks Lanny Frattare's 33rd as a radio/TV broadcaster with the Pirates. With over 30 years behind the microphone, no other person has brought the action to Bucco fans longer than Lanny.

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. He joined the Pirates behind the microphone at the major league level in 1976.

In July of 2008, Lanny will host the 22nd annual Family Links Golf Classic. Over the past two decades, Lanny and his friends have raised nearly two million dollars to help children, families and mentally challenged individuals at 17 Family Links sites in Allegheny County.

In 2007, Lanny became the 18th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

Lanny has two children; son David (33) and daughter Megan (26). David and his wife, Ann Marie, are the proud parents of two children; son Spencer (6) and daughter Carly (4).

Play-by-Play Announcer

GREG BROWN

Greg Brown is in his 15th season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates, one of only six with at least 15 years of service behind the mic for the Bucs on radio.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team, he spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. Brown also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, Brown served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Greg's association with the Pirates actually began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (9).

PIRATE RADIO BROADCAST TEAMS

In 1938, KDKA-Radio hired Rosey Rowswell as the Pirates' first full-time announcer. He worked alone for awhile, before being joined by Jack Craddock in 1940 and then Bob Prince in 1948. The following is a chronology of the Pirate radio broadcast teams over the years. Most of the years were with KDKA but WWSW was also the Pirates' flagship station during the 30's, 40's and half of the '50's.

BOB WALK

After spending 14 seasons in a major league uniform, Bob Walk is in his 15th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only six men with at least 15 years of service behind the mic for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the major leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big-league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (28), Johnny (25) and Ronny (18). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (5) and Kylie (2).

STEVE BLASS

The 2008 season marks Steve Blass' 48th year of involvement with the Pirates, having been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 seasons (1964-1974) with the Pirates, compiling a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins.

For the fourth straight season, Steve will work only those games played at PNC Park. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV. Only Lanny Frattare (32 years) and Bob Prince (28) have spent more years behind the mic than Steve (22).

A member of the 1972 National League All-Star team, Blass won 78 games during a five-year period from 1968 thru 1972. He was a Pirates hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete-game victories in Game Three and Game Seven. On the mound for the final out in 1971, Steve went 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA in the '71 World Series (18.0ip/2er).

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub. In 1983, he worked with the legendary Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

JOHN WEHNER

Pittsburgh native John Wehner joined the Pirates broadcast team prior to the 2005 season. He serves as an analyst on both radio and TV, working all road games and a handful of games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

Entering the 2008 campaign, John has spent a total of 17 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2007). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Altoona Curve (2002-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

He saw his last action in the major leagues with the Pirates in 2001. He hit the last home run in the history of Three Rivers Stadium on October 1, 2000 off Chicago's Jon Lieber and also made the final out. In 11 seasons in the major leagues, John compiled a .249 batting average, hit four home runs and collected 54 RBI in 461 games. In addition, he shares the major league record of playing 99 consecutive errorless games at third base (also Jeff Cirillo).

Wehner is a graduate of Pittsburgh's Carrick High School and attended the University of Indiana, where he played baseball for three years. He resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Wendy. The couple has four children; sons Tyler (16) and Brandon (14) and daughters Hailey (9) and Hannah (5).

We ask that all daily requests be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game. All daily credentials must be picked up at the MEDIA ENTRANCE to PNC Park, located along General Robinson Street, adjacent to the Home Plate entrance to the park. All media must show photo identification and observe the rules and regulations set forth by Major League Baseball before gaining access to PNC Park.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: All requests must come from sports editors, sports directors or photo editors and submitted on official media outlet letterhead. Requests for daily credentials can be faxed to (412) 325-4413 or e-mailed to either member of the Media Relations staff at dan.hart@pirates.com or jim.trdinich@pirates.com.

ON-LINE SERVICES: Per Major League Baseball guidelines, the Pirates will not issue working credentials to any on-line service or blogger, unless they meet each of the following criteria:

1. It is part of a national news gathering agency.
2. It reaches a broad audience.
3. It produces original content.
4. It has an established record of developing original content.
5. It employs full-time journalists.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Both clubhouses are located along the Service Tunnel. The Pirates clubhouse is on the third base side and the Visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. The Pittsburgh clubhouse is open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before game time. It re-opens to credentialed media within 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game (unless there is a team meeting). The manager's office may be open briefly between games of a doubleheader. The clubhouse is closed during rain delays. It is also closed while the club is taking batting practice on the field, unless the player needed is in the clubhouse. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined solely by the visiting club's policies. In addition, the clubhouse is not a "lounge" for members of the media. We realize that some players are difficult to track down prior to a game, but we ask that you do not just hang out in the clubhouse. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Pirates' Media Relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

Per Major League Baseball, all visitors to the home and visiting clubhouses must sign in before entering.

FIELD ACCESS: The field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until the end of the visiting club's batting practice. If the visiting club does not take batting practice, the field is accessible until 45 minutes before game time. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and all media must stay inside the first and third base bags. Access to the field is available on the Service Level only by one of two tunnels: one leading into the visitor's dugout or one located right outside the home clubhouse, which leads to the area adjacent to the third-base bag and Pirates dugout.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Media Relations Department. Any violation of these guidelines could result in immediate termination of the credential and future access.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Darkrooms are located along the Service Tunnel behind home plate. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV locations located around the ballpark. All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. All still photo locations should be reserved through Dave Arrigo, the Pirates' official team photographer.

RADIO & TV REPORTS: Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries.

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file live reports from the field or an assigned press-level booth up until game time. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or while the game is in progress. Live television reports - to air during regularly scheduled news programming - are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.
